SPEAKERS

Rosie Hussain

is Director of Teaching & Learning at Keynote Educational, has an MBA in Senior Leadership in Education and is a highly experienced and innovative classroom practitioner, with over 20 years in leading departments and delivering high quality T&L training. She has a wealth of skills and expertise as a Head of Psychology as well as leading research and development in a secondary school and sixth form college. As an AQA A-Level Examiner and Fellow member of the Chartered College of teaching she prides herself in providing high impact evidence-based practice in order to improve teaching & learning in education.

Helen Clare

helps schools and teachers deal with challenges that arise due to perimenopause and menopause. She does this through talks, workshops, support groups, 1 to 1 sessions, courses, and policy support. An ex-biology teacher and life-long biology geek, she has also worked in schools as a poet and artist and as part of her work for Creative Partnerships and Arts Council England. Helen is also an ICF trained coach and an associate of the British Menopause Society. She's also a textile artist on the quiet – and these days that's about menopause too!

Katharine Radice

is an education consultant specialising in dispositions which facilitate academic progress and personal growth. Katharine has a broad range of experience: she has taught in independent and maintained sector schools and at undergraduate university level. She has worked in mixed, single sex, boarding and day schools and studied adolescent development at the Tavistock and Portman NHS Trust. She brings to the sessions her practical perspective on classroom teaching, middle and senior management roles. Previous attendees have described her training sessions as inspiring, thought-provoking, full of practical advice and engaging.

The best conference I've attended, empowering as a Designated Safeguarding Lead. Extremely interesting and enjoyed learning new ideas to improve practice and develop mine and the teams skills.

Colfe's School

Outstanding! Plenty of top tips and advice which was deliverable in my setting. Great range of speakers and workshops, I could have gone to all of them! .
